Upcoming Changes to 2022 HTS

As per the Presidential proclamation of December 28, broad changes to the tariff classifications are set to take effect on January 27, 2022. The changes are the latest set of amendments to the World Customs Organizations Harmonized System tariff nomenclature, as implemented in the Harmonized Tariff Schedules of the U.S.

You can find the annexes to the presidential proclamation from the International Trade Commissions report for a full list of changes. The World Customs Organization has also provided a correlation table with a summary of changes at the six-digit level from the 2017 to the 2022 Harmonized nomenclature, as well as short explanations of some changes.
