Notice of Reinstated Product Exclusions

The U.S Trade representative has decided to extend 352 exclusions set to expire on December 31, 2022, for an additional nine months, to September 30, 2023.

The decision to extend these exclusions was made in light of both the ongoing review of the entire Section 301 action against Chinese imports, and comments back in October 2021 that said the goods were not available outside China, or that the additional tariffs caused importers “possible severe economic harm.”

The excluded products are covered by heading 9903.88.67, and U.S. notes 20(ttt)(i), 20(ttt)(ii), 20(ttt)(iii), and 20(ttt)(iv) to subchapter III of Chapter 99 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the U.S. You can find a list of the extended exclusions here.
